

Katharina Müller

Katharina Müller

studied economics at Bremen University, Universidad de Lima (Peru) and Free University Berlin, and earned her PhD (Economics) at European University Viadrina, Frankfurt/Oder. From 1996 to 2002, she was a Research Fellow at the Frankfurt Institute for Transformation Studies, European University Viadrina. In March 2002, she joined the German Development Institute (DIE), Bonn. Dr. Müller has served as a consultant for the ILO, OECD, GTZ and other institutions. From March 2007, she will be a Professor of Social Policy at Hochschule Mannheim (University of Applied Sciences). Her articles and books on social policy in Latin America, Eastern Europe and Central Asia were published in twelve languages. One of her books, „The Political Economy of Pension Reform in Central and Eastern Europe“, was granted both the EACES Award (European Association for Comparative Economic Studies) and the Ed A. Hewett Prize (American Association for the Advancement of Slavic Studies).

Until February 2007: Economist, German Development Institute (Deutsches Institut für Entwicklungspolitik), Tulpenfeld 4, D-53113 Bonn, Germany
e-mail: katharina.mueller@die-gdi.de

Starting March 2007: Professor of Social Policy, Mannheim University of Applied Sciences (Hochschule Mannheim), Windeckstr. 110, D-68163 Mannheim, Germany
e-mail: k.mueller@hs-mannheim.de

Permanent e-mail address: kmueller@euv-frankfurt-o.de